An Accidental Murder The Yellow

Ella Bridges, a young widow whose husband's death was surrounded in rather strange circumstances, has recently moved into her new home, known locally as The Yellow Cottage, on Linhay Island. She'd spent her childhood summer holidays on the island and during the time the family spent there Ella saw and fell in love with the cottage.

Told in the first person from Ella's point of view, An Accidental Murder is a very readable and entertaining cosy mystery novella, with engaging, colourful characters and an undercurrent of humour. I love the paranormal element that's woven into the story, giving it an edge and adding to the appeal.
