Once the patrol left, Leo and Raisa hid in the truck of a local driver who agreed to take them to Rostov, where Leo believed the child killer resided. On the way, Raisa revealed that she'd fallen in love with Leo, and that she could never bear children due to physical trauma suffered during the war. Leo, in turn, confessed to Raisa that he had a brother.

Leo Demidov, war hero in the post-war Stalinist Soviet Union, is an officer of the NKVD the CID of the Red State. Crime was a simple matter in these times. The suspect was inevitably guilty simply because he was suspected. Some crimes, considered bourgeois, officially could not exist in a workers paradise. Among these non-crimes was murder. Demidov is assigned to tell a father his son was not ...
