The Pirates! In an Adventure with the Romantics is another hilarious seafaring saga from Gideon Defoe. Much of the plot is completely bonkers [and that 's before you start paying attention to the chapter headings] and the book is almost completely populated by earnest madmen. In other words, it 's a total joy to read.

The Pirates! In an Adventure with Scientists - Plugged In

The answer, apparently, is Gideon Defoe, who adapted his own whimsically named novel The Pirates! In an Adventure With Scientists for Aardman Animations ' screen adaptation. Defoe is also presumably responsible for the disconcertingly intimidating Queen Victoria (Imelda Staunton), a royal counterpart to the implacable Mrs. Tweedy of Chicken Run.
